Hi all,

I hope you enjoyed your weekend, and Lizzie I hope you enjoyed your hiking trip!

Just a quick update on this weeks shipment, as well as a list of the remaining blocks down south.

I sampled at Nk'mip and Dark Horse today, and will sample at McIntyre tomorrow. I've decided to ship all the grapes together to save you on costs, however I remembered today that you guys can't receive shipments at UBC on Thursdays, so unfortunately my planning of sampling this week was not ideal. For that reason, I'll ship both sets of grapes on Thursday. I hope this is alright.

As for the remaining blocks. Nothing has yet been picked at Nk'mip, so all blocks will be included in this shipment. They picked blocks G (Monday morning September 21) and block E (September 14th) at Dark Horse, so I was only able to sample from the merlot blocks J and 1 at Dark Horse.

McIntyre picked block E Sauvignon Blanc and some of block J Chardonnay (I'm not sure which rows, so I'll update once I send the shipment) on September 9th and Scott has said they will be picking the rest of block J Chardonnay as well as block O Pinot Noir this Thursday. That will leave only blocks A, C and Q at McIntyre.

I'm going to pick up styrofoam coolers tomorrow for shipping, hopefully I can find one that is sturdy enough to hold up. I've also still got one larger one remaining from the original group you guys gave me.

I'll send another email with shipping info once I send the grapes for this week!

Warm Regards,
April
